Subsidies from the education and participation scheme

Your children are entitled to subsidies from the Education and Participation Scheme if you are granted any of the following forms of state aid:

- Job seekers allowance (Arbeitslosengeld II or Sozialgeld) from the Job Centre
- Social benefits (Sozialhilfe) in accordance with the 12th Book of the Code of Social Law (SGB XII) or in accordance with Article 2 of the Benefits for Asylum Seekers Law (AsylbLG)
- Housing allowance (Wohngeld) in accordance with the Housing Allowance Law (WoGG)
- Child benefit (Kinderzuschlag) according to the Federal Child Benefit Law (BKGG)

These also include „Subsidies for participation in the social and cultural life of society“.

What does this mean?

These subsidies are aimed at enabling children and young people up to and including the age of 18 to participate in clubs and other social activities and make contact with their peers.

To this purpose additional subsidies of EUR 10 monthly are granted in the form of vouchers. These can be redeemed at the participating clubs and institutions. These subsidies can be used individually (in contrast to the subsidies of the Sports Office, which can only be used for membership in a sports club) for:

- Membership fees in the fields of sports, games, culture and social activities (e.g. sports clubs)
- Instruction in the arts (for example music lessons)
- Organised activities in cultural institutions (e.g. museum visits)
- Participation in holiday camps (e.g. scouts, theatre workshops)

How to apply for the subsidy:

Recipients of job seekers allowance or social benefits (Arbeitslosengeld II or Sozialgeld) please contact the Job Centre, Stau 70, 26122 Oldenburg.

Families receiving social benefit (Sozialhilfe), housing allowance (Wohngeld), child benefit (Kinderzuschlag) or benefits in accordance with Article 2 of the AsylbLG should contact the Sozialamt (Welfare Office) Oldenburg, Pferdemarkt 14, 26121 Oldenburg.

The application form is also available from the website of the City of Oldenburg at www.oldenburg.de/sportverwaltung.
